Las Flores del Valle

Carol Vigil and Leila Flores Dueñas, are Las Flores del Valle. We are honored to have this extraordinary duo back because of high demand from their last impacted performance!! Las Flores del Valle is passionate about what they sing and their message conveys empowerment to women. In sharing music they hope to preserve the nuances of the many musical genres that are native to borderlands and to their families' histories and herstories. Their harmonies have often been compared to the various women's hermana duets or sister-duos.

Tret Fure

One of the most prolific artists in the contemporary singer-songwriter arena, Tret Fure has released 15 albums and CDs over the course of her 46 year career. In the early 80s, Tret began exploring the independent side of the industry discovering the blossoming genre known as Women's Music. She recorded with and produced some of the best of women's music including the legendary "Meg & Cris at Carnegie Hall" (1983). She worked as a duo with Cris Williamson throughout the 90s, producing, engineering and releasing 3 CDs together during those years.

Venus Rising

What better way to finish the season than with Venus Rising ! On the full moon come and be a part of a powerful evening filled with great food and company, to then be marveled by those who share their talent through song, art, spoken word, short film, poetry, etc. Venus is the Roman goddess whose functions encompassed love, beauty, sex, fertility, prosperity, victory, and desire. Come celebrate the Divine on the full moon in a women's circle. Bring your voices or anything you would like to share this evening to participate and witness.
